This month's edition highlights:

Hispanic Heritage Month

A Little Bit of History

National Hispanic Heritage Month is celebrated from Sept 15 to Oct 15 in the US & recognizes the contributions and influence of Hispanic Americans to US history, culture and achievements

- The observation started in 1968 as Hispanic Heritage Week under President Lyndon Johnson
- In 1988 President Ronald Reagan expanded the observation to cover a 30-day period
- It was enacted into law on August 17, 1988
